

Digital Portfolios

Your Digital Portfolio is a place where you will:

- ✓ Archive their best work throughout high school – work of their choice
- ✓ Reflect and write about their learning – a transforming experience
- ✓ Comment and learn from the work of their peers

An important component of the blogging project will be the teaching of Digital Literacy and Internet Safety. At the introduction of the project, and continuing throughout the year, you will learn about, and be expected to follow, these principles:

- ✓ Intellectual property and protecting your work
- ✓ Creative content and copyright
- ✓ Digital citizenship at school
- ✓ Internet Security and Safety
- ✓ Social Networking

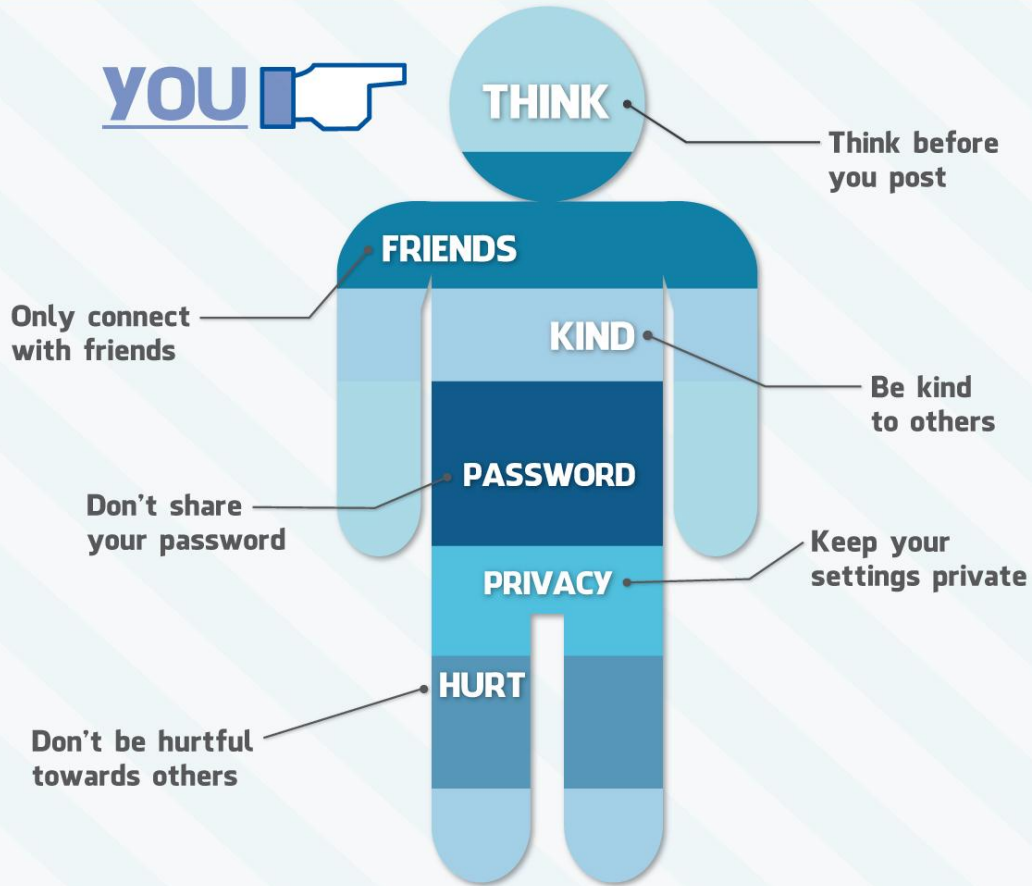

It is important that we establish some guidelines that students clearly understand and agree to uphold.

- 1. Use First names only, no last names are to appear anywhere on the blog
- 2. No personal contact information included
- 3. Positive language only will be accepted
- 4. Proper grammar, spelling and punctuation will be expected
- 5. This blog is provided to you by the school therefore school rules apply at all times
- 6. If you see anything on a student blog that you think is inappropriate, please report it to your teacher immediately
