2. Global Issues in Context

- Select the database Global Issues in Context

- In the search box type: natural disaster* and Econom

Truncation – replacing possible letters with a * allows the computer to search for all possibilities. So for example by using “disaster*” the computer will search for disaster and disasters. By using “econom*” the computer will search for economy, economics, economical etc.

Boolean Searching – allows us to combine search terms as a way of creating a better search. “Natural disaster* and econom*” will result in articles about natural disasters and economics.

TOPICS

Business and Economy

Issues covered in Business and Economy affect both the "bottom line" and the daily lives of individuals, as we live in an ever more globalized economy. Such topics as Alternative Energy, Oil Prices, and Consumer Product Safety seek to bridge the gaps between "Wall Street" and "Main Street" and define the interconnected way in which the global economy functions.
